

Restorative Church

A Half-Day Gathering in Downtown Denver

This post-NACRJ Conference event explores the convergence of...

- Restorative justice
- Restorative theology
- Restorative practices in faith communities

When: June 17, 2019, Monday, 9:00 am to 1:00 pm (arrive by 8:45)

Where: Central Presbyterian Church, downtown Denver at 17th and Sherman (1660 N. Sherman St., Denver, CO 80203) Just 3 blocks from the Sheraton Hotel.

Who: Attenders of the NACRJ conference; anyone from Colorado

Registration: RSVP with Ted Lewis at tedlewis76@gmail.com / 715-205-5945

Fee: sliding scale $5 to $15 (covers food and space usage; pay cash/check at event)

Food: healthy food snacks will be available from start to finish

---

Morning time includes:

- Presentation on restorative intersectionality for faith communities
- Sharing of challenges and opportunities re: church conflicts and harms
- Learning about theologians who engage restorative justice concepts
- Learning about new resources for advancing the Restorative Church network and promoting peacemaking practices within churches

“The enormous potential of restorative theory to better understand the big themes of the biblical story...remains seriously under-realized.”

(Christopher Marshall, Introduction to All Things Reconciled)